

Ready for an outdoor... Adventure?

Out-of-the-box geocaching for the whole family!

Hidden all over the US – behind bushes, inside logs, under park benches – are geocaches; containers of various sizes and shapes with a log book and trinkets that you can trade stashed inside. Your mission is to find them! Get in on the geocaching fun with a geomate.jr, the family-friendly, anytime, anywhere geocacher. Just switch it on and be directed to your closest geocache. It's really that easy! With approximately 250,000 pre-loaded geocache locations in all 50 U.S. states, you and your family could be out enjoying your own outdoor adventure before the packaging even hits the floor!
